

“Normandy Live Online French”

All Normandy Online courses include:

- Approximately 42 class hours, representing a full semester (3 credit-hours if taken for credit);
- optional live conversation & reading sessions with a French National in Normandy;
- Note options for auditing, with different levels of class engagement and a different price point for each.

Pricing Table

Students taking a course for credit will generally have their tuitions paid by their home universities. Please check with us or with your language department for specific details at your school.

Prices below are for non-credit auditors. Prices in this table do not include textbooks, which vary in cost from course to course. Textbook costs are listed at the beginning of the Registration Form for each course.
